The hardest thing I'll ever do
Is to walk away still loving you
I'd give anything if you loved me
But some things just ain't meant to be

Can't say it's all been time lost
In the long run I'll be a better man, better off

Gonna find my pride, self esteem, get on with my life
Follow my dreams, ain't looking back
Learn from my mistakes, once I'm past this heartache
I know when the hurtin' stops
I'll be a better man, better off

I know Rome wasn't built in a day
And there's alot of good memories in my way
But if I had to do it over again
I wouldn't change a thing, except for the end

Gonna be some pain, gotta pay the cost
But in the long run, I'll be a better man, better off

Gonna find my pride, self esteem, get on with my life
Follow my dreams, ain't looking back
Learn from my mistakes, once I'm past this heartache
I know when the hurtin' stops
I'll be a better man, better off

I'm gonna learn from my mistakes
Once I'm past this heartache
I know when the hurtin' stops
I'll be a better man, better off
A better man, better off
A whole lot better off
