"Living Alone"

Every time I think of you
My heart's torn in two
And I call you, I shout so loud
But you never answer me

Every time I feel the pain
I miss you so much again
And I remember those days
Living close to you

And I cry, oh honey, every night I cry
And I think, oh baby, so hard is my life
And I cry, oh honey, every night I cry
And I think, oh baby, so hard is my life
Without you

Two and three, these numbers still killing me
It seems like years don't go by
There's a band on my eyes
And I can't find my way yet
And there's still a mess in my head

And I cry, oh honey, every night I cry
And I think, oh baby, so hard is my life
And I cry, oh honey, every night I cry
And I think, oh baby, so hard is my life
Without you
