It's autumn, leaves are falling down
I can't fall I must go on
Winter is coming soon, it will freeze even the moon
Maybe my heart too

This city now is too small for me
I need to run away from here
In every corner memories dance in front of me
It's the brain's mystery

What is love? Stupid Cupid one day shot my heart
What is love? Now I'm shattered and full of hurt
What is love? I was happy and now I fall apart
What is love? I can see my destiny in black

Now I gotta be strong I see
With a stroke of luck maybe start to live
Again my life, now I'm free

It's hard to do, forget all the time I passed with you
But I gotta do right now
I try to save in my memory the great days
Learning from the worst in my way

What is love? Stupid Cupid one day shot my heart
What is love? Now I'm shattered and full of hurt
What is love? I was happy and now I fall apart
What is love? I can see my destiny in black
