We all took it for granted
That you'd always be around
I heard rumours of your decline
And came down to check it out

Is it a lie?
Is it a lie?
Is it a lie?
[x2]

And there's no such thing as fate
So we're all stuck here forever
And the only thing the future holds
Is hindsight and nostalgia

A song and a dance is all
That it takes to get you off
And we won't be here all night
If you have things all your way

Is it a lie?
Is it a lie?
Is it a lie?

There's no such thing as fate
So we're all stuck here forever
And the only thing the future holds
Is hindsight and nostalgia
