

Cass McCombs "County Line"

Visit "County Line" on MotoLyrics.com

On my way to you, old county hoping nothing's changed that your pain is never-ending that is, it's still the same county line.
County line, county line

I left so far behind
You never even tried to love me
woah woah woah woah woah
what did I have to do to make you want me?
woah woah woah woah woah
I feel so blind I can't make out the passing road signs
woah woah woah woah woah
all that you would have me do is cross that county line
woah woah woah woah woah
County line.

Now you know I'm coming, old county to see construction sites and your new home's never ending I think I can see the lights county line, county line, county line.
I can smell the columbine

You never even tried to love me
woah woah woah woah woah
what did I have to do to make you want me?
woah woah woah woah woah
I feel so blind I can't make out the passing road signs
woah woah woah woah woah
all that you would have me do is cross that county line
woah woah woah woah woah
County line, woah woah woah woah woah.
County line, woah woah woah woah woah.
County line, woah woah woah woah woah.
County line, woah woah woah woah woah.

Visit Cass McCombs page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

