Stepping down into the day to watch the leaf turn a praying mantis rested on my western wedding jacket True story, perhaps that's why the oracle was silent

One sees the sun only at a glance
Everything has to be just-so
Everything has to be just-so

In the age of cool opinion, let me be wild passion!
And re-edit the 'Sacred Heart' video with a different ending and wig

One sees the sun only at a glance
Everything has to be just-so
Everything has to be just-so

So, here's the deal, ante up:
A club, to cheat death
A heart, so there's something to lose
A diamond, for virtue
A spade, to dig with
