Friend of mine
let me show you how the days in-between have become so few

Friend of mine
united by dream
Make me a part of you and I will you of me

Friend of mine, forever
let us travel high
to understand not only the how but the why

Friend of mine
fades to black does this belong to you?
I pull the knife from my back

I lept from the cliff into a pool of Jersey river water
The silly sideburn began its effects I smashed my arm and my leg on the rock going down but when I rose from the depths, and nearly death what a friendly world I found!

A friend is the end
A friend is the end
A friend is the end
