Should we talk about the time.
When I last heard from you.
You left me waiting all alone so blue.
Take me to our Promised Land.
Where I'll find someone new.
But I can't even stand myself without you.
But there is nothing I can do.
I'm a fool for hurting you.
And the only thing I care about.
Never will come true.
Cos I've got a feeling
I can believe in.
I'll never change.
So turn around and walk away.
Yeah I've got a feeling.
I can believe in.
I'll never change.
So turn around and walk away.
Can I justify myself.
Having you around.
Keeping both my feet on solid ground.
I've been waiting for so long.
Can anybody tell.
You always thought you new me very well.
But there is nothing I can do.
I'm a fool for hurting you.
And the only thing I care about.
Never will come true.
Cos I've got a feeling
I can believe in.
I'll never change.
So turn around and walk away.
Yeah I've got a feeling.
I can believe in.
I'll never change.
So turn around and walk away.
