Messed up my life
Haven't done much good before
Wasting time was all I did
I never knew
Where to go, what to do
Just been a drifter, a drifter through time

I know I can make it
Just give me one more chance sure I don't deserve it
Give me one more chance

I'm sittin' here
Getting lost in thoughts again
Waiting for my life to change
Why can't you see
I need help desperately
Please believe in me, I need a little sympathy

Once is not enough that's what they say
You need a second go to find your way
