Many weeks have passed
Since we broke up and you left
No, you didn't break my heart apart
We just didn't give our best
What's good is gone, it's over now
You took it all and gave it up
Never thought about what we were losing

With you I was so sure
But now there ain't no cure
The rise and fall of love
Whatever it may take
I surely want you back
The rise and fall of love

Time and time again I asked myself
If you feel it the way I do
Are you missin' me like I miss you
Are you tryin' to be cool
I wonder why we couldn't make it
We could have been so good together
I just can't believe that it's all over
