the little hand is on the two. the big hand is pointing at you. now what time is that? my clock glows in the dark, what does yours do? my kitchen counter is flat, and has canisters on it. does yours? oh i hope so. don't you see these marbles in my hand? i want to go down to the store. i want to go where god knows best. i want to go to sunday school. jesus loves me, yes i know...i mean it. see those cobwebs? look at them, there! by the doorbell, which is by the door. the little hand is on the two. the big hand is pointing at you. now what time is that? you tell me! sometimes i have to wind up my clock so the hands will point in different special ways.
