Every time i turn around. a hideous form is standing there. the fucking cops are bad enough. why should i see you everywhere? you're alone and i wish i was.
you're alone and i wish i was. you're alone and i wish i was. i'm not smiling. i understand you're hard up for a friend, but goddamn, there's such a thing as invitations... and that's just for your information... you're alone and i wish i was. you're alone and i wish i was. you're alone and i wish i was. i'm under no obligation to be friendly. you seem to think that your attitude will send me. (just because my line's not busy doesn't mean i'm expecting a call from you.) you're alone and i wish i was. you're alone and i wish i was.
you're alone and i wish i was. i was. i was. i was.
