I keep a note that I wrote on a taxi receipt.
It says don't listen to anybody other than me.
You hit the big time for a nominal fee.
But you lose a friend in the end for every dream that you see come true..

I got scars upon scrapes. I got bruises and breaks.
But still I stay committed to see how much of this I'll take.
Three years under water, I aint even got the shakes
Im going deeper....deeper and deeper.

To three days underwater.

Some shoo over our cards
Some might take a look.
Write a promise on the wall
And well go on.
I save everybody, I'm the only one forgot
Whatever you want me, Ill surely fake it.

Three Days Underwater

I got scars upon scrapes. I got bruises and breaks.
But still I stay committed to see how much of this I'll
take.
Three years underwater and I aint even got the shakes
I'm going deeper....deeper and deeper.

Underwater!

I got dreams to remember. I got days to forget
I've got phone calls in to god but he aint' called me back just yet
Lately I've been noticing my shadow slip away
I'm going deeper. Deeper into....
