Open your eyes, take a look around, there's an ill-boding wind, blowing into your face

You can sense it

The weak are swept away, insignificance, lying on the side of a street

Indifference, passed by

Open you eyes, awake from you dreams, this is the only way

Open your eyes, awake from your dreams, only this is the way, only way

Enveloped by your myopic dreams, make up your mind and prepare yourself have you taken your stance?
No second chance
You've made your decision, despite derision

Who believes in you, who believes in me,
I believe in me

Don't stand still, open your mind, it's all right, you will find Come on this is the way
Your path on dusty streets

Open you eyes, awake from your dreams
this is the only way
Open your eyes, awake from your dreams

Who believes in you, who believes in me,
I believe in me

Your way on dusty streets
