I am the beholder, I have beauty for the eye
If you can't see, are you blind
Are lower beings, showing you the way
showing you the way

No more pain, the feeling all laid numb
So introspective, welcome, here you come Nauseation, I most suppress
Are you sick, or simply the best
The beholder sees it all
Don't hide, nothing there
The beast has finally, reared its head
I am the beholder, I have beauty for the eye
If you can't see, are you blind
Are lower beings, showing you the way,
showing you the way

Now you can see, now you are not blind
You're better people, no path to find
I'm the beholder, I have beauty for the eye
No more pain, the feeling all laid numb
So introspective, welcome, here you come
Nauseation, most suppress
Are you sick, or simply the best
The beholder sees it all
Don't hide, nothing there
The beast has finally, reared its head
I am the beholder, I have beauty for the eye
If you can't see, are you blind
Are lower beings, showing you the way,
showing you the way
