Seven different girls, seven different times I cursed myself,
Always scared the real one might arrive.
Seven different times, seven different nights I hated myself,
Always scared that the real one might just appear.

I come in two halves,
Really good and really bad.
I come in two halves,
Really good and really bad.

If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died.
If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died,
My girl just died.

Seven different Santas and seven different Grotos at the same time,
All scared that the real one might arrive.
Seven different Gods and seven different churches at the same time,
All scared that the real one might just appear.

I come in two halves,
Really good and really bad.
I come in two halves,
Really good and really bad.

If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died.
If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died,
My girl just died.

Made the same mistakes again,
Entered the lions den.
Learnt nothing down memory lane
Only that we'll never change.
Made the same mistakes again...

If you wanna see the beast in me,
Keep on talking and eventually
You will see the beast in me,
My girl just...

If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died.
If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died,

If you wanna see me fall apart,
If you wanna break my purple heart,
If you wanna see my happy side
Better tell me that my girl just died,
My girl just died
