Have you ever kept a Scrapbook
So you could look back someday
Relive all the things you once did
Just as I did yesterday
At the time it seemed a good idea
I didn't know that sadness was so near

Take a look in my Scrapbook and see
See my life as it used to be

Photographs of things that happened
And they happened long ago
Pictures of familiar places
And of faces I used to know
I'm living in the past I'm so confused
I haven't caught up with the daily news

Take a look in my Scrapbook and see
See my life as it used to be

There I was just sitting on a fence
And surrounded by the friends I used to know
But that was a long time ago

Take a look in my Scrapbook and see
See my life as it used to be

The friends I once had are all gone
Close the book
I don't want to go on.
