So I'm walkin down the street
I see a pretty girl that I'd like to meet I bump up I say hi ask her if she needed a ride so we head back to my place on the south corner of the estate we head back to my room thats when I found out she was a dude

Woah this is awkward
Woah this is awkward

So I'm sittin at home
I get a buzz from my phone I getta text from my ex saying we need to reconnect I wonder how could this be she must be deceiving me but I text back its time to mend turns out she's texting my best friend

Woah this is awkward
Woah this is awkward
Woah this is awkward
Woah this is awkward

But every time I try she turns out to be a guy every time I dont know she's always hanging with one of my bros
Why god why me
Fuck that I don't need your sympathy
Every text in and out I wonder if he's making her shout
