Turn lights down low make it feel like we're all alone
Make up everything we missed last weekend Tell me a truth tell me a lie try to make me feel alive and when I gaze into your eyes I can't look away

I've never been a fan of story telling I've never believed in a fairy tale ending
I know It has only been for one night
But I say I do to Mrs. Right

So much to say but words all go away when I'm with you you make me speechless Pinch me once pinch me twice just try and make me bleed
Am I awake because I must be dreaming

Im falling Im falling
Can you catch me can you catch me
