Cant wait for my next show cuz I know she'll be there California dreaming Barbie style with the blonde hair Tuck it in but you know we're going to hang out Never took the shot but I might take the rebound A7 she's my battleship girl she's always a hit and miss she enters life of the party but leaves with only a kiss and I dont know what to do

My baby don't think so secondary
I just need some time to think and clear my mind Refrain from calling always wanted her to fall in love with me
but that was my 8th grade fantasy

At the show she said she really liked me gave me false hope it gave me such a false dream grab myself get in touch with reality turns out the girl really does like me My relationship might be rocky but I'm sure it will never bend
Why does she have to like me when I have a girlfriend

What do I do next Im just freaking out about
