I can't help myself
But to think of you in my dreams
The picture of you
The one by the water so perfect to me
Its hard to keep things so close
When I know you so well But it's getting to late and I just am waiting to tell

Speak to me I'm giving everything I got (enjoy) Losing me because I know I'm worth a shot (and just) let me know I'll make it more than worth your while I'll never let this go

It's been such a long time
But I know it won't be the same Times moving to fast and it's not helping me If only things went differently would I still be here in this place If I was just happier would you still be here with me
