Well I know that I've been wanting all night long
To get you on the floor to dance
Well I also see he's got you there wrapped in his arms so
I won't get the chance
So I thought I'd take this opportunity to talk to you
While he's gone to use the phone
Oh won't you please come dance with me the Next to the last waltz, then I'll go home Well there's people here who know us both who'd give anything to give their tongues a chance to wag
And we all know how people talk the most about Stuff they know the least about
If that is why you're sitting there with him
Not giving me the time of day
Oh won't you please come dance with me the
Next to the last waltz then I'll go away
If you'd only dance with me
I'd have all the world to see
That I was the king for just a little while
I could waltz you round and round
Back and forth and upside down
To show you why we waltz this waltz together
Why we should waltz forever
Well he's so young and handsome wonder why he's all alone at the nightclub tonight
Does he notice that I'm sitting here just leaning back
In boredom just for his delight
And when he gets back will he find you there or Out on the dance floor doing the jig with me
Oh won't you please come dance with me the
Next to the last waltz
Then I'll be set free
You keep looking there like you see something
That you really wanted all the time
And I keep looking back it's an attack of me not making up my mind
And the guy beside you's fidgeting
Just trying to keep his seat upon the chair
Oh won't you please come dance with me the
Next to the last waltz then I just won't care

Oh won't you please come dance with me the
Next to the last waltz then I just won't care
