Everybody's looking for a greener place
To find their fortunes to ake thier dreams come true
Sometimes we look for meaning in another place
For me the answer's right here with you
No pretty face or promise of the moon
Could tear us apart
Somehow you threw a rope around my life
And catpured my heart
I'm tied to you, caught up and bound
To be with you
I'm wrapped in you
I'm tied to you, caught up and bound
To be with you
I'm wrapped in you
There never was a question in my mind
No doubts to leave behind when you came to me
I saw my future in a different light
Just like a jewel that shines all around me
No pretty face or promise of the moon
Could tear us apart
Somenow you threrw a rope around my life
And captured my heart
Repeat chorus
Everybody's looking for a greener place
To find their fortunes to make their dreams come true
It doesn't matter hoe much time goes by
Hoe many tears we cry - I found my truth in you
No pretty face or promise of the moon
Could tear us apart
Sowmhow you threw a rope around my life
And captured my heart
Repeat chorus 2x
