He goes out onto a lonely street at night
His mind is gone and he's lookin for a fight
Lock your doors get down on your knees and pray
He's an insane mindless cow and he's here to stay
He's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
Yes he's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
He's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
Yes he's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
He'll wait outside your house until you fall asleep
He'll break inside and across your room he'll creep
He'll shake you awake and then he'll puke on you
And you try to scream but there's nothing you can do cause he's a
He's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
Yes he's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
He's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
Yes he's a mad mad mad mad cow
And he's coming to get you, he's coming to get you
