Talk talk talk in their words of petty amusement
I sit five feet close to them yet I'm half a world away
In silence without words
In my mind just breathing
I take on my emotions
And try living
Talk talk talk is all they do
Silence is what I use most
Words they use to fill their lives
Emotion still continues on
I order up a coffee and light up once more
I'm a part of everything yet somehow part of nothing
They invite me to their world
And I refuse
I will not give in
I will overcome
Talk talk talk is all they do
Silence is what I use most
Words they use to fill their lives
Emotion still continues on
Rescued from myself I see a familiar face
She sits down and orders a joe and lights up with me
I am accepted
And I am loved
I am wanted
We sit and talk and talk and talk
Talk talk talk is all they do
Silence is what I use most
Words they use to fill their lives
Emotion still continues on
