

Crosscut "The Line Red"

Visit "The Line Red" on MotoLyrics.com

If you offered me an open door, I would accept, I'd step inside

If what I found was a bright mind, oh I'd turn off the light

Even as there ain't no entry fee, I'm still payin' for this ride

So I expect nothing less than a god to kiss me tonight

If you wanna take a ride with me, why do I walk alone
Is this the place I've been to or the place that I belong

So you wanna save the best for me, avoiding any fight Ain't this the place that I've been to, and if they say so, does it make it right

Now I save my precious time and waste all those hours on myself

But ain't our life just perfect in these picture frames on my shelf

If you wanna take a ride with me, why do I walk alone
Is this the place I've been to or the place that I belong

This is not my home and I'm falling apart from me

Visit Crosscut page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.