Chorus:

We make the world go round, uh uh, all they way from
the bronx to the town x4

{Verse 1}

We make the wold go round we universal/
All in the schedule no need for rehearsal/
Our determination got our elevation elevating/
Through the nation keepin haters ration perpetrating/
Which we need to keep our reputation motivated through
The thick and thin stayin stainless like the coupe
rims/
Poppin collars with hot dollers thats fresh out the printer talkin bout eating we on the 9th dinner/
on the ninth dinner yes on the ninth dinner/flow so hot yet we on the ninth winter/
if we talkin bout the game man it's sharper then a splinter cus we don hit the jackpot just like a winner/
so we all make the world go round, we keep it spinning/and it's never gonna stop till the top of tops winning/all the people on the block from the hills to the mills
to from the hood all the way up to hollywood/
then back to bollywood man thats world wide baby/
through their hand in the air had em screamin all crazy/
like we make the world go round, uh, and we gon show
all the haters who run the whole town like:

Chorus:

We make the world go round, uh uh, all they way from
the bronx to the town x4

{Verse 2}

And now we back at it, to mack on the wack addicts/
Cause what they lacked was the fact to cut back/
The fact to fade that and the guts to live that/
But we had that on lock raped up like them raps up/
And that's up so all the haters backed up/
Cause they didn't want the next step of the wack up/
I know they said most of us would flop but changed the mind when they saw up at the tip top/ So I guess the haters can be the fuel to the fire/

The key to the ignition on a never ending mission/
igniting their division with not a care to listen/Straight through the intermission not caring for decisions but yes uh/ we on a different mission/
To make it to the top keep it spinning fam on lock/
Stayin the brightest star in the sky/
Nike boots on still universal fly like:

Chorus:

We make the world go round, uh uh, all they way from
the bronx to the town x4
