tragedy's appealing.
disaster an addiction.
waiting for the good in everything
while the world keeps failing.

these's safety in this distance,
there's pain in entertainment.
waiting for the good in everything
while the world keeps failing.

consistent with these problem,
i'm not a failure now.

anxiety's misleading,
it's kosher yet revealing.
waiting for the good in everything
while the world keeps failing.

shine a light down on this,
shine a light down on everyone and everything we see
while the world keeps failing.

consistent with these problems,
i'm not a failure now.

you wonder why and realize what we're made of...afraid of.
in light of everything, in spite of everything.
afraid of failing now.

i spite of this... in light of this...
i'm not a failure now.
