Screw you and die I hope you burn
You think you're worth more than you earned You're nothing, you're worthless, except for these verses
Out with the new and with the old

Die, die, die
Die, die, die
Die, die, die

Honesty makes you do the strangest things like act angry
It's your life, your move, your chance to make good of the bad
Can't hide the fact that you still lied to us, you lied to them
And put the past behind, make it good there's one more thing to say

Say it, no, say it, no
Say it, no, say it, no

Two years is a long time to pretend
Now we start again
Two years is a long time to pretend
Now we start again
We've got to stay until the end, no, we've got to say it
Two years is a long time to pretend, two years

Say it, don't act surprised when we
Say it, don't act surprised when we
Say it, don't act surprised when we
Say it, don't act surprised when we
Say it, don't act surprised when we Say it, don't act surprised

Two years is a long time to pretend
Two years is a long time to pretend
Two years is a long time to pretend
Two years, two years
