Now, this one's on you
And I won't let it die and I won't let go
Goddamn this whole thing
And I remember being happy

And I said
That you must do what feels right
And I know
You must do what's best for you

And I said
That you must do what is right
In our hearts, we must carry on

No, I'm not afraid of being here
I'm scared of feeling alone again
Goddamn everything
And I remember feeling happy

'Cause I said
That you must do what feels right
And I know
You must do what's best for you

And I said
That you must do what is right
In our hearts, we must carry on

I wait to see, this will die
And when it does, I will be dead
Wait to see, this will die
And when it does, I'm dead

And I, I hate
To have to say
Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

Can't wait
To tell you now that what we have must end
'Cause I can't wait

To tell you now that what we have must end

'Cause I can't wait

To tell you now that what we have must end

'Cause I can't wait

To tell you now that what we have must end

Must end, must end
