She went like that
She went without a word
The rant inside is beating me slowly

She left, I don't know why she went
Without a word
What could I do
The sun won't shine no more
Won't shine not anymore
Not anymore

I thought this could not happen
I was so assured to be
Should be immune
I know it's not like you say
The heart that broke in May
Won't mend in June

The wound is too large too deep
My nights bring me no sleep
My days are slow
I know my life ain't over
I know I will recover
I'll be fine soon
I'm about to beg her to come back
She would be too glad to see me cry
My life is low
I don't care who she might be with today
I guess I had to lose her anyway
I'll be fine soon
I'm fine about her new life
I don't wanna waste success tonight
My days are slow

I know my life ain't over
I know I will recover
I'll be fine soon

I'll be fine soon
