The clock says it's 10 AM
The sheets are not mine, where am I
I remember vaguely
Having been here before

There's no one in the house
My steps on the stairs don't make any sound

I open the curtains
I don't like what I see

There's fresh food on the plates
But no smell in the air

Pet food
I can't believe my eyes
There's a giant hole in the roof

Where is this sky ?
A dark red sky where the sun is dying
A dark red sky where the sun is dying
A dark red sky where the sun is

I don't like what I see
(repeat)
