say that you're mine, we'll hold on to tonight and never say goodbye and i'll hold on tight, your hand in mine this feels so right i need you to say, you'll never go away with each breath i take, i'll beg you to stay beg you to stay

and i've been dying to prove, i'm so in love with you and wherever i go, i'll come back to you and all i want, alexandra, to be your only one i'm lost in your eyes, just say that you're mine our lips will collide
i hope you'll see, you're all i need you're all i need

please dont leave, cause i can't believe that you're with me we'll look to the stars, with you in my arms i fell so hard for you i'll bend til i break, if that's what it takes to make you stay if every word i say could take your breath away girl i'd tell you absolutely everything

wherever i go, i'll come back to you and all i want, alexandra, to be your only one

but what could you see, in a boy like me?
a boy like me
