Come closer here and save me
Feel my heated breath
Only in darkness do you
Show me what you meant

One thing I'll always tell you
I believe in love
Into the skies I shout out
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe

(Chorus:)
I believe in brandy-colored
Kisses in the rain
I believe in power
And the passion and the pain
(I believe in love)
When this world comes crashing down
I still believe in you
When this world comes winding down
I still believe

While standing in the shadows
Waiting for the light
The ghost of past and present
Fading from my sight
And I believe that one day
Sanctified by grace

I'll find my sanctuary
In your loving face
In your loving face
In your loving face
'Cause I believe

(Chorus:)
I believe in brandy-colored
Kisses in the rain
I believe in power
And the passion and the pain

(I believe in love)
When this world comes crashing down
I still believe in you
When this world comes winding down
I still believe
In you

'Cause I believe

(Chorus:)
I believe in brandy-colored
Kisses in the rain
I believe in power
And the passion and the pain
(I believe in love)
When this world comes crashing down
I still believe in you
When this world comes winding down
I still believe

'Cause I believe
I believe in brandy-colored
Kisses in the rain
I believe in power
And the passion and the pain
(I believe in love)
When this world comes crashing down
I still believe in you
When this world comes winding down
I still believe

(Fading)
I believe
I believe
I believe
