You're the cardinal sign
In my animal eyes, yeah
So what if you came along with me?

Cuz I'm ramblin' on
Fading in song
What if you sang along with me?

We'll be hand in hand on a grain of sand
Through the past, darkly we may find

As the seasons turn again
We'll gather all the ornament
A celebration, one more time

And as the seasons turn again
We'll gather all the ornament
Set a fire to auld lang syne

We'll be hand in hand crushed into the sand
Through the glass, darkly we may find

Stay up late and watch the evening sky
Glowing Sans Soleil into the night
But we can't wait outside this gate forever
There's a place where we can be together
Follow me, we can start again
Something says this is not the end.
