(It's an endless war!)

Get down to me, I'll fall in front of you...
Get up to me, I'll stand in front of you,
Never coveted a thing like this,
But you were making me believe in you and now you miss.

10 hundred times split personalities,
10 thousand lives past one to know what it is,
10 billion scars to understand what you mean
And now I'm here to ask you why things are not what they seem.

Extended abilities
Require more responsibilities.
Extended knowledge, extended pain,
No right to fall, to turn back, because it's just the same.

I've got no choice, but you,
My present, past and future are askew.
I serve your holy will.
I do the best I can,
So don't make me more human than I am,
I hope my music swings
So don't cut my silver wings.

Sometimes I see things that I must not hear,
Sometimes I smell things that must not be here...
And every time I track it down I'm sure
You're right behind my back to make it clear, then make it obscure.

10 hundred times I could be out of turn,
10 thousand places to which I can't return,
10 billion apples, all forbidden fruit
To understand when I can love and when I must persecute.

I've got no choice, but you,
My present, past and future are askew.
I serve your holy will.

I do the best I can,
So don't make me more human than I am,
I know my music swings
So don't cut my silver wings.

Can you show me your sacred plan?
I wanna know! I wanna know!
May I do a little more than I can?
I wanna try! I wanna try!

Will you always watch me from above? (for 10 billion years)
Will you always leave me homesick? (for 10 billion years)
I can walk only forward and I can't hesitate,
I can't fear, can't be a coward, I've got no right to hate.

Gimme power to hold on (to the end of time!)
Gimme strength to worship (to the end of time!).
Never thought that I'd go this far,
Each second final, each eternal, like an endless war.

It's an endless war! x2
