Kill me,
so I shall tell you
how it is to die
Kill me,
so you might see
another star in the sky Kill me,
kill the paper vampire
this is my boon
Kill me,
worship my desire
under the light of the moon Â... but you see in my eyes my hate and my insanity Â... but i feel in your lies your insecure vanity
Kill me,
lay a rose on my grave
Kiss me,
kiss the soul of your slave this is my weak hope
an ethereal praise
please, close your eyes
before my scope
Â... an eternal place
shall realizeÂ...
Kiss me,
until my last breath
hear me
lady of sorrow
before my mind
there's not tomorrow
