

Cartilage "Ether Depression"

Visit "Ether Depression" on MotoLyrics.com before my infant eyes, our universe opens up wide pre-destined lifeline, administrates me from cradle to grave

peak of innocence, adolescence my fall from grace ejected conscience nowadays in depression i dwell aged, insolated in my realm solicitude is other world prejudice rejection drains me from soulmatter that is life so i'm numb an empty void unfulfilled

[karri]
i want to taste life as it is but with death i'm so far fed so understand my bitterness 'cause i don't want eternal rest the threads upon the loom of life defiled now envenoming us i crave for something that is pure but just to reach that is unsure

[mikki]
blackened minds remain compasion is denied heads bow down in shame even loved one's we decieved restrained... drained

my misery remains outer world i denied depressions i gained disgraced in my hastew ashamed... deranged before my dying eyes your universe closes me out predestined lifelines mine is cut i rest inpeace...

Thanks to Jose Rivera for sending this lyrics.

Visit Cartilage page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

