I'll learn to look around
without making a sound
like you do
I mean, like you did.

I can't believe you're gone while my life goes on
and I feel like
I did something wrong.

they say time heals
every wound
but I don't want it to heal
it should bleed and bleed.

then it should
bleed and bleed and bleed some more that's what my pain is for little red dots
my memories of you.

you solved your problems with ro-sham-bo didn't like it when bruises show
where are you now?
what can I do for you?
what can I do for you?
what can I do for you?
where are you now?
what can I do for you?

wanting things to end
and wanting things to change
are two completely different things
but to you they are the same.

she was an itch that he couldn't scratch a shooting star that he couldn't catch he got heartbreak and a habit from her.

she drove him to drink
he drove her to the brink
and when the screaming stopped, the love of his life was gone.

he had a tiger by the tail
a cap'n Ahab who'd found his whale
where are you now?
there's nothing I can do.
there's nothing I can do.
where are you now?
there's nothing I can do.

and wanting things to change
are two completely different things
but to you they are the same.
