The nightmare closed around me
Leaving me to face a universe
As bleak and bare as the scars of my rotten soul
Cutting the silver cord
The beginning of this odyssey
Crushing the skulls of those committing betrayal

I begun the funeral procession, requiem for an eternal rest
Even within the tideless seas surrounding me
The fields of graves, they call my name, my name...

Lead the war, lead the battle
With no mercy we reach our revelation
(Descending into The Chasm)
