"The Conjuraton"

The duality of pure rage and chaos guides my journey Infinite search of despair and delusion controls the inner vision
The ultimate consequence of this sorrow
The great coming of faded memories, bleak and unconscious

My reigning terror has begun
The hopes cracked and vanished
Utter death arrives, cover me
Reaper of grandeur, honoris lux de necrosis

The nebular aura of resurrection makes my scars bleed
Tears of victory, for the day of liberation is in sight
For the time of revenge has arrived
The spectral empire forges it's return
