Why do I feel so outside, looking in bruised and broken Battle scars I get knocked down Lick my wounds get up and stand in the line

[Chorus:]

We're all standing in a line, and it's never enough time
When your two steps behind, you're always two steps behind

Cynical world with no commercials Breeding disguise of flamboyant lies Factory built with no guarantee Don't wanna buy this don't wanna stand in their line

(Chorus)

Don't want to, stand in your, don't want to stand in your line (2x)

This is the story of my life (4x)
