as if i needed any more reason to exorcise these demons i'm telling you this hell is more than i can handle even now so do you have an opinion, sweetness how we can better feed this urge can we merge with utter urgency in secrecy, i see that we're both hurt call me now i have this picture here reminding me to find you waiting until we stop time we'll never be together on any level how did i get in twisted mysteries i'm leaving even though i do believe i'm seeing you again in some old fashioned picture pefect fiction
call me now
