You needed me to stay
But your words pushed me away
Your words
Hearing when in love with you
Was like a knife cutting me to pieces
My hurt brought on anger because you said them

Say what you will
It will never hurt again
I don't love you like I did back then

I valued your opinion
You can't hurt me anymore
You lost a lover and a friend
I hate how much time I spend

Embrace, enjoy life
Being in the moment - cause God
Life is a treat and I am too

I gave it my all
It was real for me
It was your short comings
Living a lie... control

I believed you
Belief and trust

There will be another you
And I still will give all my heart
I'll never shut it down
Because I want them to have it all
Hope you understand or you will lose again
