I've been thinking about all the lonely nights
I'd be waiting patiently, my love was blind
I couldn't see that, you had no love in your heart for me.

In your eyes, I can see, you've been acting unfaithfully
And I think you should leave, don't look back, because you're history.

So baby go just walk away "I ain't gonna cry"
To make you stay, you'll come running back to me some day.

But baby I'll be gone

Another number I didn't recognize Too many chances far too many lies Secret moments, too many rendez-vous Listen baby we are through

Now I know, I believe, you've been acting unfaithfully
And I think you should leave, don't look back because you're history.

So baby go, just walk away, I ain't gonna cry like yesterday
And baby you could try to make me stay
But I'll be moving on
