There's no reason to go on
Something deep inside has gone
And has changed our deep emotions

We had feelings you and me
But our love's not meant to be
And the magic ring has broken

Hear the sound of your guitar
Notes are coming from afar
Playing softly to your love talk

I've been up by all this game
And it's such a crying shame
But the music now is over

So many nights we sat together
But we're total strangers now
We try to speak
The words unspoken

And now I can't stand it anymore

I don't wanna take this fakin'
(Can't go breaking my heart like you want)
I don't wanna take it, Make it
You can't spin me around, round your soul

Is that pity in your eyes
You look sad to me tonight
Where's the feel of sweet vibrations

I am closing down on you
Baby what I wouldn't do
Not to lose imagination

So many nights we sat together
But we're total strangers now
We try to speak
The words unspoken
And now I can't stand it anymore

I don't wanna take this fakin'
(Can't go breaking my heart like you want)
I don't wanna take it, Make it
You can't spin me around, round your soul

Even if you keep on saying 'don't let go'
Leave decisions till tomorrow
My heart says I have to listen to your heart
But I don't want to more
No I don't want, no I don't want, 'cause

I don't wanna take this
Spin me around, round your soul
I don't wanna take it, make it
You can't play with my heart and my soul
