I did my very best to help you
I tried in every way to make you stop
You closed the door to problems
That You say are yours

you don't want me around
You're too proud to say you need me and
I stayed beside you in the bad times
I kissed your every step and every move
I can't pretend it's easy to live without you

You took all my air
And you took my energy

Our love was one then
We were strong then
No ghost invaded all our nights of passion
Don't blame yourself
Oh baby!
Don't blame me

I'll never run in the night without you
The hands of time have now changed direction
I'll never run I'm alone without you
I'm in a prison of love
A prison full of open doors

You can't imagine how I suffer
To see you going down a danger zone
You've lost the loving feeling you had deep inside

Take another road
You're in time to build a home

Remember once how
You were strong and
You had the power
You could climb a mountain
Don't lose your self respect
You won't be free

I'll never run in the night without you
The hands of time have now changed direction
I'll never run I'm alone without you
I'm in a prison of love
Never run without you

I'll never run in the night without you

I'm in a prison of love
A prison full of open doors
A prison of love

I did my very best to help you
I tried in every way to make you stop
I'm in a prison babe
I'm in a prison babe
I'll never run without your love babe

I stayed beside you in the bad times
I kissed your every step and every move
I'm in a prison babe
I'm in a prison babe
I'll never run without your love babe
