When we hold each other in a warm embrace
And you tell me there's no one can take my place
I could fly, we can't deny
Love beautiful and faithful
I know, we can make it last
And our love can grow stronger
You live you learn again
The heart is strong, when love wins
It's more than a feelin', I know that you feel for me
No more heartache, let the love begin
I can still recall the moment that we met
On a summer's afternoon, I can't forget
How we laughed, holding hands in the rain
Lost, lost without you near me
And now, I know dreams come true,
But my heart will remember
You live you learn again
The heart belongs when love wins
I could be dreaming'
It's more than a feelin'
No more heartbreak, let the love begin
Please no longer, will I cry
No more empty lonely nights
You live you learn again
It's more than a feelin'
I know you feel for me (yeah)
No more heartache, new beginnings
You live you learn again
My heart is strong
And I know we can win
I could be dreamin'
It's more than a feelin'
You live you learn,
We live we learn
Let love begin
