mmmm
you were here once a little bidie tells me your still here i cant believe that your gone i just wish you were still here with me How could you leave me just like that i cant believe you cheated on me
i had every rite to shoot you and now i will regret shooting you because now i see how much you meant to me
You sat and watched me play netball you caught me when i fell i couldnt be 2 feet away from you because i didnt feel safe i didnt feel rite i just got a shiver down my spine

cheated on me
pulling the trigger i regret taking your life and now you can call me a murderer oh oh yeah you can call me a murderer

just dont tell the police the truth no no dont give them any clues but now your dead i just have pictures of great times we had together you made me so angry i felt i couldnt take it anymore How could you leave me Why did you cheat on me
cheated on me yeah i had every ruite to pull that trigger i regret taking your life i regret telling the lies i did it i killed you yeah call me a murderer please
