

Diggy Simmons "Unforgivable Blackness"

Visit "Unforgivable Blackness" on MotoLyrics.com

Diggy:

They wanna take away my black card cause I gotta black card

Say I don't rap hard cause I don't act hard, but if I act hard they will Say that's odd And they would still hate, I don't get that part

I'm too boys to be one of the boys Think I gotta man servant with ya pride

Of toy why y'all so salty? too much sodium soy

Kill ya brother and it's you that you only destroy Uh, why should I apologize? For my fathers wallet size?

Now they wanna give Voltaire and my mother shoulda been in eyes

Nawh, we done came too far why my brothers gotta fight like Mufasa and Scar?

Get caught up in the system that they profit enough and they don't see the Profits at all!

Chorus:

Look how far we've come from singing freedom songs!

So why can't we get along? My brother why you questioning from this point

Diggy:

And to my homies I say... you can't deny

Background: forgivable... blackness

Forgivable blackness

Yeahh. I could see Malcolm at the podium on the ground and Betty Shabazz

Holding him

He tried to fight it, but his wounds took a toll on him.

Got the king too, Man they got the both of em!

The government warmth of the petroleum in the streets too warm took control

Visit Diggy Simmons page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.